Event Report on Drawing competition

In an effort to promote environmental consciousness and creativity among our students, our campus recently organized a drawing competition centered around the theme of sustainability. The event garnered enthusiastic participation from talented students who showcased their artistic abilities while emphasizing the importance of sustainable living. Through their creative expressions, participants highlighted crucial issues like renewable energy, conservation, and eco-friendly practices. The competition not only fostered artistic talent but also raised awareness about sustainable practices in our community. Participants' artworks served as powerful visual representations of our collective responsibility towards a greener future. The event's success underscored our commitment to nurturing both creativity and environmental stewardship among our students.

Event Report on Ask Me Anything

In a proactive effort to empower our students with valuable insights and career guidance, our campus recently organized an 'Ask Me Anything' event. This interactive session facilitated direct engagement between students and experts from diverse fields. The experts generously shared their knowledge, clarifying students' doubts about career choices, opportunities, and personal growth. Through open dialogue, students actively participated, seeking advice and gaining invaluable perspectives. This event served as a bridge, connecting aspiring individuals with experienced professionals, fostering mentorship and illuminating pathways to success. The event's resounding success reaffirmed our commitment to providing holistic educational support, ensuring our students are well-informed and inspired as they embark on their future endeavours.

Event Report on Present Your Startup Idea

Cultivating a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship, our campus proudly introduces 'Present Your Startup Idea,' an event designed to unveil the revolutionary venture, SpeedCopy. This cutting-edge startup offers streamlined solutions for efficient document management. Our event serves as the platform to not only launch SpeedCopy but also to ignite a spirit of innovation among our student community. We aim to raise awareness about the startup, emphasizing our commitment to support aspiring entrepreneurs. Through mentorship, guidance, and resources, we encourage students to step forward, ideate, and transform their innovations into startups. We believe in nurturing creativity, enabling individuals to pioneer new ideas, and fostering a future where innovations don't just stay ideas but become powerful revolutions, driving progress and change.
